Iowa CCIM Chapter Elects new Board

The Iowa Chapter of CCIM Institute, a national commercial real estate designation, held their annual meeting for the installation of the 2011 Board of Directors. Gene Nelsen of Nelson Appraisal, Urbandale, was installed as President.

New Officers include Vice President Christopher Stafford with NAI Ruhl & Ruhl Commercial, West Des Moines; Treasurer Jim Tansey of The Hawkeye Group, NAI Ruhl & Ruhl in Davenport and Secretary Dustin Whitehead with Lockard Realty in Cedar Falls. Chapter Directors are Mark Patterson of Des Moines, Matt Lundberg of West Des Moines, Niki DePhillips of West Des Moines, Mike Shaffer of Cedar Rapids, Barb Hokel of Des Moines, Tyler Dingel of Des Moines and Chris Bogenrief of Sioux City.

Honored for his outstanding service and contributions to the Chapter, the outgoing President's plaque was awarded to Bill Wittig with Allison James in Iowa City.

The CCIM designation is recognized as the mark of professionalism and knowledge in commercial investment real estate. Only about six percent of commercial real estate practitioners nationwide hold the CCIM designation, which reflects not only the caliber of the program, but also why it is one of the most coveted and respected designations in the industry.

NAI Ruhl & Ruhl Commercial Company is the region's leading commercial real estate firm specializing in commercial real estate brokerage, management, development, and maintenance services with offices in the Quad Cities, Des Moines, and Dubuque. NAI Ruhl & Ruhl Commercial Company reaches markets worldwide with its partnership with NAI Global, the world's only managed network of commercial real estate firms.
