NAI Ruhl & Ruhl Commercial Company
Acquires Magnum Resources Team

Davenport, Iowa (September 26, 2006)

NAI Ruhl and Ruhl Commercial Company is pleased to announce the recent acquisition of Magnum Resources property management group located in Des Moines, Iowa. The group, led by Gary Haverkamp, shall become part of the NAI Ruhl and Ruhl Property Management team where Mr. Haverkamp will serve as the Director of Property Management Services. Additional team members are: Bob Taycher, Mike Oberender, Heather Hennick, Cliff Hines, Dennis Jordan, Dan Wessel and Randy Wiseman.

“Gary and his team have a long history of managing some of the premier buildings in Iowa such as Hub Tower. I believe that this acquisition will further enhance our depth and experience as we continue to stress the importance of, and owners recognize the value of, quality property management,” said Kurt Mumm, President of NAI Ruhl and Ruhl – Des Moines.

NAI Ruhl and Ruhl Commercial Companies will take over the management and leasing responsibilities for the Hub Tower, a 281,000 square foot office tower at 699 Walnut in Des Moines and owned by Hub Tower LLC. Other properties in Des Moines that will be managed are: AmerUs Life Building with 106,000 square feet, AmerUsAnnex Building with over 17,000 square feet, 10th and Cherry Studio’s 15,000 square feet, and WBC with over 90,000 square feet. “We are excited to become part of a strong Iowa company with deep roots and a demonstrated commitment to growth. Their reputation within the real estate industry made this a very easy transition,” said Gary Haverkamp.
