Personal Philosophy

By placing myself in the role of “trusted advisor” and serving as an advocate for my clients, I will always do the right thing for those clients, and act in the best interests of all parties involved in the transaction. Being honest, fair and sincere in all business transactions is my personal philosophy.

“It is important to my client’s continued growth, and the achievement of their business goals, that I make every effort to capture their vision, zeal and passion for success in everything I do to assist them with their commercial real estate needs”.

Scope of Service Experience

- Analyze the commercial property needs of each client.
- Research potential available properties.
- Present appropriate properties to the client for consideration.
- Act as the client’s liaison within the industry.

Background & Experience

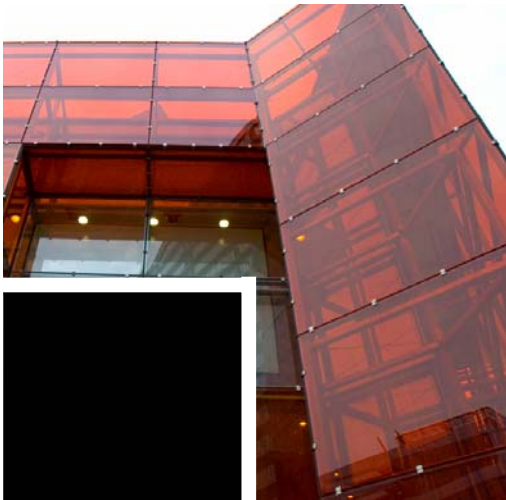

- Previously with a non-profit organization creating corporate sales calls, planning and executing fundraising activities.
- Prior 21 years of banking experience in management, loans and creating new commercial business.
- Joined NAI Ruhl & Ruhl Commercial Company as Director of Business Development in October 2006.

Professional Affiliations & Designations

- Pursuing IA/IL sales associate pre-license course.

Accomplishments & Involvement

- Member of the Bettendorf Rotary International.
